

Compline

PRAYERS FOR THE END OF THE DAY

Welcome to St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Whatever your faith, whatever your condition, you are welcome among us. We hope you will return.

The ancient office of Compline derives its name from the Latin word meaning "to complete" (complere). Originally the last of the daily offices celebrated by monastic communities, it eventually found a place in local liturgical settings. Compline consists of psalms, short passages from scripture, a hymn, a canticle (Nunc Dimittis), a litany, collects, and additional prayers, including a Marian hymn.

Compline is offered when the work of the day is finished. Silence before, during and following this service allows time to pray, reflect, and grow in communion with God, in this candlelit sacred place.

The Choir of St. Paul's has been offering Compline on the fourth Sunday of each month at eight o'clock pm since the Fall of 2001. Our Compline service is derived from various sources, including Liber Usualis and the Book of Common Prayer (BCP p.127). It is sung by the choir in English and Latin. An outline of the service is on the back of this sheet, with references to full texts in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP), the Bible, and the Hymnal 1982.

Please turn off pagers and cell phones before the service begins.

THE OFFICE OF COMPLINE

Officiant: The Lord Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end.

Choir: Amen.

Officiant: Brethren, be sober, be vigilant;
because your adversary the devil
walketh about like a roaring lion,
seeking whom he may devour;
whom resist, steadfast in the faith.

But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. I Peter 5:8, 9

Choir: Thanks be to God.

Officiant: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

Choir: The maker of heaven and earth.

Officiant: O God, make speed to save us.

Choir: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
Alleluia.

THE PSALMS

Antiphon: Have mercy on me, Lord, and hear my prayer.

Psalms: 4, 91, 134 BCP pp.128-131
